1. At the first warning bell all must fall into line in the order of the assembly and pray.

2. Uniform must be full and clean and buttoned up to the neck and should be worn only on the days specified in the uniform list. Non-permission to wear any other clothes is not entertained.

3. Boys should be in their designated place before the bell. Students who fail to be in their designated place when the bell is rung will not be allowed to enter the class and are liable to be charged.

4. Once the students report to the school they are expected to obey the rules and regulations and refrain from any misconduct. Students who fail to follow the instructions of the teachers and staff shall be dealt with according to the merit of the situation.

5. Special clothes to be worn on special occasions are to be handed over to the teachers in their residence for verification. Only after verification will such clothes be permitted in the school.

6. Students are not permitted to visit the school unless required by the authorities.

7. Uniforms are compulsory for all extra-curricular activities. Gardening etc. Various extra-curricular activities involved in social work, banking, community service, debating, public speaking, drill, etc., are to be engaged in wholeheartedly. Students should be trained in self-help and should be taught to keep their room neat and tidy, make their own beds, polish own shoes, carry their own bags etc. The formation of such habits early in life will be conducive to their personality formation, so that they can work, continuously, as a team, and lead a successful career. This will help them to have the dignity of society and get a good job in the future.

8. In the school, students are expected to follow the directions of the teachers and principles. Students are expected to follow dress and personal care of books and school property as expected by the school regulations. All are expected to be punctual and properly attired.

9. Right behavior is the expression of a mature personality. In all the dealings with others be polite and obliging. Manners and words and punctuality should be taught in the school. Nepali may be spoken only during Nepali lessons. P.T. Dress (on Wednesday) Boys: Navy blue full pants, Light blue square-lined half sleeved shirts. (For winter navy blue half sleeved sweater with stripe on neck, sleeves and border and navy blue woolen cap. Special mention for the uniform for special occasions. Details will be communicated by the school authorities.)

10. Right behavior is the expression of a mature personality. In all dealings with others be polite and obliging. Manners and words and punctuality should be taught in the school. Nepali may be spoken only during Nepali lessons. P.T. Dress (on Wednesday) Boys: Navy blue full pants, Light blue square-lined half sleeved shirts. (For winter navy blue half sleeved sweater with stripe on neck, sleeves and border and navy blue woolen cap. Special mention for the uniform for special occasions. Details will be communicated by the school authorities.)

11. Students are not permitted to visit the school unless required by the authorities.

12. Articles found in the school premises are not to be retained by the teachers and are not to be worn in school. No school business will be transacted after school hours and on holidays. No school business will be transacted after school hours and on holidays.

13. Students who are engaged in study are expected to continue their studies in the institution.

14. Students who are absent in school will still be responsible for their loss. Students who are absent in school are expected to follow the directions of the teachers.

15. Students are expected to be punctual and properly attired. Students are expected to follow dress and personal care of books and school property as expected by the school regulations. All are expected to be punctual and properly attired.

16. Students are expected to be punctual and properly attired. Students are expected to follow dress and personal care of books and school property as expected by the school regulations. All are expected to be punctual and properly attired.

17. Students are expected to be punctual and properly attired. Students are expected to follow dress and personal care of books and school property as expected by the school regulations. All are expected to be punctual and properly attired.